

Going to the Doctors

A Social Story

Sometimes I go to the doctors. This is ok.

This might be because I am not very well or sometimes the doctor might need to check something.

will come with me to the doctors.

When I go to the doctors I might have to wait until they are ready for our appointment.

When I hear my name, it is my turn to see the doctor.

_____ will talk to the doctor. The doctor may ask me questions.

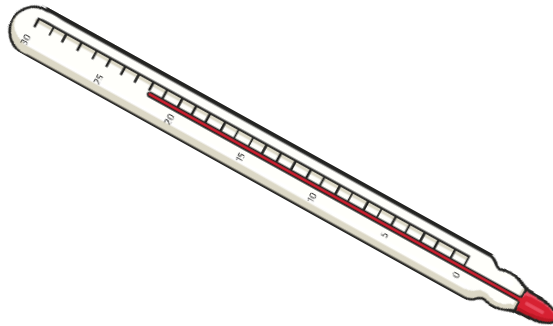

This is OK.

The doctor might want to listen to my heartbeat.

The doctor might want to take my temperature.

This is OK.

The doctor might write a prescription. This is for medicine to make me feel better.

This is OK.

The doctor will be proud of me for going to my appointment.

_____ will be proud of me for going to my appointment.

